

How Blessed are all those

Psalm one

Words by Mark Shipp

Music by Konstantin Zhigulin

How blessed are all those Who do not walk in sin, Nor streams of wa - ters found; They shall trans - gres - sors stray In 3

do they stand in sin - ners' paths, Nor do they sit with them; But yield their fruit in seas - on And in right - eous - ness a - bound. The con - gre - ga - tions of the just, Nor walk with - in their way; For

5 in the right - eous law Of God is their de - light, And wick - ed are not so, But they are like the chaff, That God knows right - teous ones, Who trust him from their birth; But 7

How
And
The

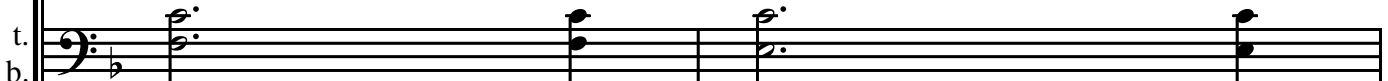

on this law they med - i - tate By day and then by wind drives far a - way, and none Shall speak on their be - all who walk in wick - ed - ness Will per - ish from the

9

bles - sed are all those Who do not walk in sin, Nor they are like a tree By streams of wa - ters found; They wick - ed will not stand, Nor shall trans - gres - sors stray In night.

half.
earth! And That on wind this But all drives who

11

s. a. do they stand in sin - ners' paths, Nor do they sit with them, But yield their fruit in seas - on And in right - eous - ness a - bound. The con - gre - ga - tions of the just, Nor walk with - in their way; For

t. b. law far walk they med - - - i - a - way, and in wick - - - ed -

13

s. a. in the right - eous law Of God is their de - light, And wick - ed are not so, But they are like the chaff That God knows righ - teous ones, Who trust him from their birth; But

t. b. tate none ness By Shall day speak and on Will per - - - ish

15

s. a. on this law they med - i - tate By day and then by wind drives far a - way, and none Shall speak on their be -
all who walk in wick - ed - ness Will per - ish from the

t. b. then their from by be - - - night. And the half. The earth! How

Coda:

17

s. a. night. half. earth. Who do not walk in sin.

t. b. 1, 2. 3. rit.
they are like a tree by bles - sed are all those Who do not walk in sin.
wick - ed will not stand, Nor