

Return, O Lord

Words by Mark Shipp

Psalm 6

Music by Konstantin Zhigulin

s.
a.

Lord, do not re - buke in an - ger, and do not your wrath pro - long;
I am wear - y from my sigh - ing, and my bed dis - solves in tears;

t.
b.

5

Mer - cy, Lord, for I am faint - ing; my cry goes up: "How long?"
For my eye grows weak with sor - row; my com - fort dis - ap - pears.

9

Turn to me, O Lord, de - liv - er, Turn in faith - ful - ness and save;
Leave me, all who work in - jus - tice, For the Lord, in my de - spair,

13

How can I in death re - mem - ber? And Has re - ceived my sup - pli - ca - tion, and 15 who can praise heard You from the grave? Re -

 He has heard my hum - ble prayer. , Re

who can praise heard you from the grave?
 He has heard my hum - ble prayer.

Refrain: who can praise you from the grave?
 He has heard my hum - ble prayer.

17 turn, o Lord, res - cue my soul;
 O Lord, res - cue my soul;

Re - turn, o Lord, res - cue my

O Lord, res - cue my soul;

19 Save me be - cause of Your lov - ing - kind - ness. Re - turn, o Lord,
 Save me O Save God. O Lord,
 soul, O, God. Re - turn, o Lord,

Save me O Save God. O Lord,

22 res - cue my soul; Save me be - cause of Your love.
 res - cue my soul; Save me be - cause of Your love.
 res - cue my soul be - cause of Your love.

res - cue my soul; Save me be - cause of Your love.